Pro Am Competitions Chattanooga Brewing will hold a spring Pro Am for Farmhouse style beers. Please be planning and brewing your entries now. Exact date is forthcoming. Hutton and Smith is asking for more entries for their Pro Am as their last round only had a few entries. Bring your entries to the April meeting. Check your email soon for a list of acceptable yeast strains for the H&S competition. This is a great opportunity to win a chance to brew your beer at a couple of our great local breweries and have it served on tap around town.

Brew Skies will be held at The Chattanooga Choo Choo on April 14, so be planning and brewing your beers for that now. Scott was able to get them to agree to give us 2 tickets for 5 gallons instead of 10. They want clubs to bring 12 kegs total. If interested in donating a keg, contact Scott Phillips.

Barrel Project Event date set to March 24th. If you want a bus ride up there, we are asking that you provide the club a $10 seat reservation fee. This fee ensures you make it and that we don't have any empty seats. All club members are welcome to join us at Monkey Town for the event whether you drive yourself or ride the bus. Brew will be an all day event so plan accordingly. We are filling a 55 gallon Chattanooga Whiskey barrel with a Russian Imperial Stout. Should be a blast!

Chattabrewga No new information on this event. More to come.

Peach State Brew off and Extravaganza! Judging will be held weekend of 2/24 for Bluff City and 3/3 for Peach State. Good luck to all brewers who entered beers.
